

Enclosure No. 8

The Company's Articles of Association relating to the General Meeting of Shareholders

Chapter 1 General chapter

Article 3/1 If this Articles of Association requires that the warning, notice or advertisement of any message concerning the Company shall be made to the persons or public through newspaper, it shall be made through a Thai daily newspaper published in the locality where the Company's head office is located, with a period of time as the criteria prescribed by law. If there is no such newspaper, it shall be made in a Thai daily newspaper published in the Bangkok or establish an advertisement via electronic media or any other means as permitted by law at present and/or to be changed hereafter, however, to the extent of criteria and procedures as stipulated by law.

Article 3/2 In the event that the Company or the board of directors is obliged to send letters or documents in accordance with the provisions of the Public Limited Companies Act B.E. 2535 (1992) (including any amendments thereto) to the directors, shareholders, or creditors of the Company, if such persons have notified their intention to receive or consented to the delivery of, letters or documents via electronic means, the Company or the board of directors may send such letters or documents via electronic means in accordance with the criteria prescribed by law.

Chapter 4 Board of Directors

Article 19 The Company shall have its board of directors at the amount imposed in the meeting of shareholders but not less than 5 persons.

However, not less than half of the amount of total directors must have residence within the kingdom.

Article 20 The election of company directors shall be held in the meeting of shareholders under the rules and procedure as following:

- (1) A shareholder shall have voting equivalent at one share per one vote.
- (2) In the election of directors it may apply on person at one or many into a group or by other means as seen suitable in the meeting but in each resolution the shareholders shall act under (1) totally and cannot divide voting to any person or group.

(3) The voting election shall be applied by majority vote and in case of equivalent voting the chairperson shall rule the final voting.

Article 21 In every general meeting of shareholders, one thirds of directors at the time shall be vacated and if it cannot be divided properly at one thirds it shall be applied with approximate amount.

After the effective date of this Regulation, the vacancy of directorship in paragraph one in first and second year to be applied in drawing lots and in further years the longest directors shall be vacated and in any occasion with many directors in equivalent duration of office at over the vacated directors in that occasion, these directors shall be vacated by drawing lots.

The directors who vacated by the mentioned reason may be elected to assume directorship again.

Article 22 Apart from the vacancy in routing, a director may be vacated at:

- (1) Death;
- (2) Resignation;
- (3) Lacking qualification or forbidden by law;
- (4) The meeting of shareholders resolved to vacate under Clause 24;
- (5) Vacated by court order.

Article 23 Any director who wishes to resign shall submit a letter of resignation to the company and it is effective from the date the letter reached the company.

A director who resigned under paragraph one may also notify his resignation to the registrar.

Article 24 A meeting of shareholders may resolve a director to be vacated before his term at voting not less than three fourths of the shareholders attending with voting right and counting the number of shares at not less than half of the holding shares by the shareholders attending with voting right.

Article 25 If a directorship is vacated by other reasons apart from term of office, the board of directors with not less than three fourths of the remaining directors may elect persons with qualification and without forbidden characteristics under the law to assume directorship in the next board meeting except the vacated term is less than two months.

Article 26 In case the directorship is vacated less than the amount to have its quorum. The remaining directors shall conduct the board roles only to have a meeting of shareholders to elect directors to replace the vacated directors and to be under the time imposed by law.

Article 27 Any director elected to assume directorship under Clause 25 and 26 shall assume the post only at remaining term of the director replaced.

Article 28 A director is entitled for remuneration as the meeting of shareholders have resolved in voting at not less than two thirds of the total shareholders attending, and may fix the remuneration at a fixed amount or under the rule temporary or continually until the meeting of shareholders shall modify including the right of allowances and welfares as stated in the Regulations of the company.

The statement in paragraph one shall not affect the director's right being the staff or employee of the company in receiving any remuneration or benefits as staff or employee of the company.

Article 29 The board of directors has the powers and duties in the supervision and administration of the company to comply with the laws, objectives and regulations of the company and resolutions of the meeting of shareholders including when the company or its subsidiaries agrees to have transactions related with or in acquisition or distribution of its property under the meaning as imposed by the Stock Exchange of Thailand enforced with transactions related with the listed company or in acquisition or distribution of properties as the case may be and the company shall comply with rules and procedure imposed in that matter.

The board may assign a director or many directors or any other person to perform any thing on its behalf with terms, conditions and restrictions as seen suitable by the board.

Article 30 The board of directors shall elect one director to be the chairman. In the event that the Board deems it appropriate, one or more directors may be elected as vice-chairmen. The vice-chairman has duties according to the regulations in any business assigned by the chairman.

Article 31 The Board of Directors shall hold a meeting at least once every three (3) months at in the province where the Company's head office is located or nearby provinces or in any other places as the Board of Directors deems appropriate.

The Meeting of the Board of Directors may be held by the electronic meeting which shall comply with the provisions and methods as required by notifications, regulations and related laws. The quorum and voting of the Meeting of Board of Directors shall be subject to the Company's Articles of Association. All provisions and methods provided by laws, law notifications, and regulations relating to the electronic meeting shall be applied to the other articles of the Company's Articles of Association as related. In the case that the board of directors meeting is conducted via electronic means, the head office of the Company shall be deemed to be the place of the meeting, and the electronic meeting shall have the same legal effect as a physical meeting in accordance with the methods prescribed by law and in these Articles of Association.

The committee meeting can be conducted by electronic media meeting by following the announcement of the National Anti-Peace Committee No. 74/2557 on electronic media meeting dated 27 June 2014 and the announcement of the Ministry of Information and Technology. Communicate regarding the security standards of the electronic media conference, 2014, dated 24 November 2014 and the laws relating to such meetings, including any further amendments

Article 32 The chairman is the person holding power to call a meeting or order to have a board meeting.

In calling a meeting of the board of directors in accordance with the first paragraph, the vice-chairman of the board shall be the person who summons a meeting of the board of directors in the absence of the chairman of the board or the person assigned by the chairman of the board for whatever reason. In the absence of the vice-chairman of the board for whatever reason, at least two (2) directors may jointly summon a meeting of the board of directors.

When there is reasonable cause or in order to preserve the rights or benefits of the Company, at least two (2) directors may jointly request that the chairman of the board of directors summons a meeting of the board of directors, whereby the agenda and reason(s) therefore that will be proposed for consideration must be specified. In such a case, the chairman of the board shall summon and fix the date of the meeting within fourteen (14) days of the date of receipt of the request.

In the case where the chairman of the board of directors or the person assigned by the chairman of the board does not take action in accordance with the third paragraph, the requesting directors may jointly summon and fix the date of the meeting of the board of directors to consider the proposed agenda items within fourteen (14) days of the end of such period mentioned in the third paragraph.

Article 33 In calling a meeting of the board of directors, the chairman of the board or the person assigned by the chairman of the board shall serve written notice calling for such meeting to the directors not less than three (3) days prior to the date of the meeting, except for the urgent necessity in order to protect the right and benefit of the Company which the meeting notice may be called by electronic means or any other means and an earlier meeting date may be chosen.

Article 34 In a board meeting it requires directors to attend at not less than half of the total directors to make a quorum.

Article 35 The chairman shall chair in a board meeting and in case not available or cannot perform duty the vice chairman shall chair in replace and in case without the vice chairman or not available or cannot perform duty, the attending directors shall elect one director to chair.

The final ruling of a board meeting shall decide by majority vote with one director for one vote and if the voting count is in equivalent the chairperson shall be the ruling vote.

Any director has interest in any matter shall have no right to vote in that matter.

Article 36 The board of directors may appoint a director to be the managing director with powers and duties as seen suitable by the board.

Article 37 The board of directors may appoint a number of directors as seen suitable to be the executive board with powers and duties to supervise the company's business as imposed by the board of directors and the managing director to be an executive board member by position.

An executive member has the right for remuneration and reward as imposed by the board of directors but shall not affect that executive board in receiving remuneration or benefits in this Regulation as a director.

Article 38 The executive board shall elect one executive member to be Executive President and in case the executive board sees suitable to elect an executive or many executives to be Vice Executive President. The vice executive president shall have the duties as assigned by the Executive president.

Article 39 An executive member may call for a meeting of executive board any time and to apply Clause 33 and 34 and the paragraph two in Clause 35 by mutatis mutandis.

Article 40 It is prohibited for a director to operate any business of the same nature and in competition with the company's business or being partner in any ordinary partnership or unlimited partner in limited partnership or director in limited company or public company limited operating business of the same nature and in competition with the company whether for its own or other person, except notifying the meeting of shareholders before such appointment.

Article 41 A director shall inform the company immediately in case with any interest directly or indirectly in any contract with company or holding shares or bonds in company or affiliated company increasingly or decreasingly.

Article 42 Any director buys property of the company or sells property to the company or any business transaction with the company whether on his own behalf or other person, if without the permission of the board, such undertaking shall not bind the company.

Article 43 All businesses of the company that the board or any director or person assigned by the board to act on behalf of the company shall be valid and bind the company even it appears later with any defect in relation with the election, appointment or qualification of the directors.

Article 44 Two directors jointly sign and affix the seal of the company shall bind the company.

The board has the power to consider fixing and amending change of authorized directors to sign to bind the company.

Chapter 5 Meeting of Shareholders

Article 45 The board of directors shall have a meeting of shareholders as General Meeting of Shareholders within four months from the date ending the accounting year of the company.

Other meeting of shareholders apart from the mentioned shall be called Extraordinary Meeting.

Article 46 The Board of Directors may summon an extraordinary meeting of shareholders any time as it deems appropriate. A shareholder or shareholders holding shares amounting to not less than 10 percent of the total number of shares sold may subscribe their names in a written request directing the Board of Directors to summon an extraordinary meeting but the reasons for summoning such meeting must be clearly stated in such a request. In this event, the Board of Directors must summon a shareholder meeting within forty-five (45) days as from the date of receipt of the request from the shareholders.

In case the Board of Directors does not summon the meeting within the stipulated in the previous paragraph, the shareholders who subscribed their names or other shareholders with the aggregate number of shares as stipulated may notice for summoning an extraordinary meeting by their own issuance within forty-five (45) days from the end of period mentioned in previous paragraph. The shareholders calling the meeting may send the meeting notice to the shareholders via electronic media if such shareholder has informed the intention or given consent to the Company with the criteria prescribed by law. In this case, the meeting shall be deemed as the shareholders' meeting to call by summoning of the Board of Directors and the company shall provide reasonably the convenience and shall be responsible for the necessary expense arisen incurring to call the meeting.

In case in any meeting summoning by the shareholders as stipulated in the second paragraph, the number of shareholders to attend the meeting do not conform the quorum of the meeting as mentioned in the Articles of Association, the shareholders as stipulated in second paragraph shall refund the expenses incurring to cause such the meeting.

Article 47 In summoning for a Meeting of Shareholders, the Board of Directors shall send notice of the meeting specifying the place, date, time, agenda of the meeting and subject matter to be submitted to the meeting together with reasonable details and shall deliver the same to the shareholders and the Registrar for reference not less than (7) days prior to the date of the meeting. The notice shall be published in the newspaper or establish an advertisement via electronic media or any other means as permitted by law at present and/or to be changed hereafter, however, to the extent of criteria and procedures as stipulated by law. The venue used for the meeting will be in the area where the company's head office is located or any other place as determined by the Board of Directors. In the event that the board of directors meeting is held via electronic means, the head office of the Company shall be deemed to be the place of the meeting, and the electronic meeting shall have the same legal effect as a physical meeting in accordance with the methods prescribed by law and in these Articles of Association

The Meeting of Shareholder can be held through electronic media. The process of meeting through electronic media shall be proceeded in accordance with the criteria and method as provided by laws and run through a meeting control system which has information technology security standard as specified by announcement or regulation of the relevant authorities or by laws.

In case of proxy for joining and voting in the electronic shareholders' meeting, such shareholder and proxy shall comply with the procedure and conditions set forth by Company which shall be in accordance with the related rules and regulation and applicable laws.

Article 48 A shareholder may have proxy who is a sui juris attending and voting in the meeting of shareholders by having a letter in the form stipulated by law and the proxy to submit it to the chairperson or the person assigned by the chairperson at the venue of meeting before the proxy attends the meeting. In appointing a proxy under this paragraph, it may be carried out via electronic means in accordance with the criteria prescribed by law.

Article 49 To constitute a quorum in a shareholders meeting, whether a physical meeting or a meeting via electronic means, there shall be not less than twenty-five (25) shareholders present in person or by proxy (if any) or not less than one half of the total number of shareholders and holding shares in aggregate not less than one-third (1/3) of the total number of shares sold to make the quorum.

In case any meeting of shareholders when the time lapsed at one hour the number of shareholders attending not making its quorum as stated in paragraph 1, if such meeting has been conducted because the shareholders request it shall be suspended but if such meeting is not from the request of the shareholders it shall be appointed for a new meeting and send letter of invitation to shareholders at not less than seven days before the date of meeting and this last meeting does not require to have its quorum.

Article 50 The chairman shall sit to chair the meeting of shareholders and in case the chairman is not available or cannot perform duty, the vice chairman shall replace but if the vice chairman is also not available or cannot perform duty, the meeting shall elect a shareholder to chair the meeting.

Article 51 The chairperson shall uncton in controlling the meeting to comply with the laws and regulations of the company on meeting (if any) and to conduct the meeting following the agendas imposed in the letter of invitation except the meeting shall resolve with not less than two thirds of voting to change the agendas.

When the meeting has considered matters in agendas in completion, the shareholders counting votes not less than one thirds of the total distributed shares may request the meeting to consider other business apart from the items imposed on the letter of invitation.

In case the meeting has considered according to agenda items and/or matters proposed by shareholders not in completion (as the case may be) and it has to be postponed, the meeting shall fix venue, date and time of the next meeting and the board of directors shall send letter of invitation stating the venue, date and time and agendas to the shareholders not less than seven days before the date of meeting and to advertise it in newspaper or establish an advertisement via electronic media or any other means as permitted by law at present and/or to be changed hereafter, however, to the extent of criteria and procedures as stipulated by law.

Article 52 The ruling or resolution in a meeting of shareholders shall be conducted in voting and no matter the voting shall be done by counting one share as one vote. In case the voting is equivalent, the chairperson shall be the ruling vote.

Any shareholder has special interest in any resolution, that shareholder has no right to vote in the matter except in voting to elect directors it can be voted without any restriction.

Voting in a meeting of shareholders shall be done openly except when shareholders not less than 5 persons request and the meeting resolved to vote in secret it shall be as such by the chairperson shall impose the method of secret voting.

Article 53 A resolution in the meeting of shareholders shall compose of voting as following:

(1) In normal case it shall take majority vote of the shareholders attending and voted.

If the voting is equivalent, the chairperson shall vote to make the ruling.

(2) In following cases it takes voting at not less than three fourths of total votes of the shareholders attending and with the right to vote.

(a) In the sale or transfer all businesses of the company or its important section to other person;

(b) In case of buying or take the business of limited company or other public company limited to be of the company;

(c) In making, amending or terminating contract related with leasing of all businesses of the company or its important part, assignment of other person to manage the company's business or merger business with other person with the objective to share profit and loss;

(d) Amending memorandum of association or regulations of the company;

(e) Increase or reduction of capital;

(f) Issuing of bonds;

(g) Amalgamation of companies or dissolution of company.

Article 54 Businesses that an annual general meeting shall conduct are following:

(1) Consider the Board Report showing performance in the previous year;

(2) Consider and approve balance sheet and statement of income;

(3) Consider the allocation of profits and approve dividend payment;

- (4) Election of directors replacing those vacated on term of office;
- (5) Appoint auditor and fixing auditing remuneration;
- (6) Other businesses.

Chapter 6 Increase and Reduction of Capital

Article 55 Subject to the provisions of law, the company may increase its capital from the amount registered by issuing new shares with the resolution of the meeting of shareholders at not less than three fourths vote of the total shareholders attending and with voting right.

Article 56 Newly issued shares in increase of capital may be totally sold or in part and may propose to the shareholders at the portion of shares each person holding or to the public or other persons whether totally or in part, depending on the resolution of the meeting of shareholders.

Article 57 The company may decrease its capital from the amount registered by reducing its share value to be lower or reducing the number of shares or writing off the registered shares that cannot be distributed or not yet in distribution with the resolution of the meeting of shareholders at not less than three fourths vote of the total shareholders attending and with the right to vote.

Article 58 The company cannot reduce its capital lower than one fourths of its total capital.

Chapter 7 Accounting, Finance and Auditing

Article 59 The accounting cycle of the company starts from 1 January and ends on 31 December of every year.

Article 60 The Company shall provide with the preparation and maintenance of accounting, including auditing under the law and to prepare balance sheet and statement of income at least once in every 12 months of the company's accounting cycle.

Article 61 The board of directors shall have with balance sheet and statement of income at the ending date of accounting cycle to be presented to the meeting of shareholders in the Annual General Meeting for approval of Balance Sheet and Statement of Income. The board of directors shall have auditor to inspect it before presentation to the meeting of shareholders.

Article 62 The board of directors shall send the following documents to the shareholders with the letter of invitation to attend the Annual General Meeting.

(1) Copy of the balance sheet and statement of income audited together with the report of inspection of the auditor;

(2) The board report;

Article 63 The company shall allocate profits annually as reserve at not less than 5% of the annual profit deducted with the accumulated loss amount carried forward (if any) until the reserve shall be over not less than 10% of the registered capital.

Article 64 No dividend payment shall be made from other monies except from the statement of income in case the company is still with accumulated loss.

The dividend payment shall be divided at the number of shares equally.

The board of directors may pay dividend interim to the shareholders occasionally when judging that the company has sufficient profits to do so and report to the next meeting of shareholders.

Dividend payment shall be made within one month from the date of meeting of shareholders or resolved by the board as the case may be. However, it shall be notified in letter to the shareholders and advertised the dividend payment in newspapers or establish an advertisement via electronic media or any other means as permitted by law at present and/or to be changed hereafter, however, to the extent of criteria and procedures as stipulated by law.

Article 65 The Company may pay dividend totally or in part by issuing new ordinary shares to the shareholders with the consent of the meeting of shareholders, if the company still distributes new shares not in completion as registered or registration of capital increase.

Article 66 The appointment of auditor and fixing of remuneration shall be done with the resolution of the Annual General Meeting and may appoint the existing auditor again.

Article 67 The auditor may be a shareholder of the company but not a director, staff, employee or any position holder of the company.

Article 68 The auditor has powers in inspecting accounts, document and other evidence related with income and expenses and assets and liabilities of the company at office hours. In this matter to have the power to question directors, staff, employees, position holders of the company and company representatives including explanation or facts or sending of evidence related with the company's business.

Article 69 The auditor shall provide report to the annual general meeting under the law governing auditing and with duty to attend the meeting of shareholders every times with the consideration of balance sheet and statement of income and problems in accounting for explanation on auditing to the shareholders. The company shall send reports and documents that the shareholders should have in meeting of shareholders to the auditor too.